Environmental Policy

Introduction

David Lambert accepts that it has a responsibility to the principles of sustainability and environmental awareness as summarised by the ISO 14001:2004 standard.

Policy Statement

David Lambert recognises the social and economic importance of protecting the environment; that its commitment to this must encompass all activities and that it should be prepared to lead by example in promoting a sensitive, considered attitude to the environment. Our approach to managing our environmental issues is compliant to ISO 14001:2004 and any applicable legal or other regulatory requirements.

Aims

- David Lambert is committed to reducing any harmful impact its operations have on the local and global environment.
- David Lambert will measure its impact on the environment and set targets for ongoing improvement.
- David Lambert will comply with all relevant environmental legislation that applies to the company.
- David Lambert will raise staff awareness of environmental issues and enlist their support to improve the Company's performance.
- David Lambert will encourage its suppliers and customers to adopt similar principles.

Responsibility

The Directors have the overall and final responsibility for the Environmental Policy with the Management Representative in charge of the co-ordination, implementation and monitoring of the
